From Tuesday November 10, to Saturday November 14, 1778.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th Day of November, 1778,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath laid before this Board an Extract of a Letter from Sir William Hamilton, His Majesty's Envoy at Naples, giving Information, That that Government, justly alarmed by the Accounts of the Plague raging violently at Smyrna, and in several Islands of the Archipelago, and of it's having passed Salonica, have augmented their Quarantine, and taken other Precautions to prevent it's coming into that Kingdom; His Majesty this Day took the same into Consideration; and although it appeared that a Quarantine of Forty Days is at this Time subsisting, by Orders of this Board, upon all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, (except those coming directly from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain, Minorca or Gibraltar;) yet His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, judges it necessary, upon this Occasion, to cause the said Orders to be enforced and extended; and to that End, His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby order, require and command, that the said Quarantine be enforced; and that all the Officers, appointed for the Service of Quarantine, do use their utmost Care and Diligence in causing the several Rules and Regulations established for the due Performance of Quarantine, to be punctually and strictly observed and carried into Execution: And His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, is further pleased to order, require and command, that all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, coming from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain within the Mediterranean, or from Minorca or Gibraltar, and all Goods and Merchandizes on Board the same, that are already arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days; and do likewise strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Admiralty-Office, November 14, 1778.

EXTRACTS of Diſpatches from Vice-Admiral Montagu, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels at Newfoundland, to Mr. Stephens, received by the Hawke Sloop, lately arrived from that Iſland at Spithead.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Montagu to Mr. Stephens, dated at St. John's, Newfoundland, October 5, 1778.

FOR the Information of my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, I beg to acquaint you, that as ſoon as I received certain Intelligence that Hoſtilities were commenced by Count D'Eſtaing in North America, I diſpatched Commodore Evans in the Romney, with the Pallas, Surprize, Martin, and Bonaviſta Armed Sloop, under his Command, with 2 Field-Pieces, a Party of Artillery, and 200 Marines under the Command of Major Wemys, to put in Execution His Majeſty's Commands to me (under His Sign Manual) to attack, reduce, and take Poſſeſſion of the Iſlands of St. Pierre and Miquelon; which Service, I have the Honour to acquaint their Lordſhips, he has performed; and encloſed I tranſmit you a Copy of the Commodore's Letter to me of the 17th ult. ſince which I have not heard from him, owing to the very thick Fogs and Eaſterly Winds, which have prevailed theſe Three Weeks paſt. As ſoon as I can get a particular Account from the Commodore I will diſpatch the Hawke with it.

Captain Linzee, of the Surprize, returned from the Coaſt of Labrador on the 9th ult. He was too late on the Coaſt for the Privateer he went after, but on his Way back took a Schooner Privateer of 10 Three pounders, 8 Swivels, and 40 Men, in Trinity Bay, called the Harlequin, belonging to Salem, which I have bought into the Service.

Extract of a Letter from Commodore Evans to Vice-Admiral Montagu, dated St. Peter's Road, September 17, 1778.

I ARRIVED here the 14th Inſtant, with His Majeſty's Ships under my Command, and immediately ſent Captain Montagu to the Governor, to acquaint him, that as the French had committed Hoſtilities in America, I came here to demand a Surrender of the Iſland of St. Peter's, Miquelon, and its Dependencies, to His Britannic Majeſty, and demanded an Anſwer in Half an Hour.

The Governor ſent the incloſed Propoſals, to which I returned the Anſwer alſo incloſed, and ſent Captain King of the Pallas, and Major Wemyſs, with 117 Marines and a Party of Artillery, to take Poſſeſſion of the Place, which was immediately delivered up to them.

I have not yet been able to get an exact Return of the Arms and Ammunition in the Iſlands; but the Number of Inhabitants is ſaid to be about 3000, the greater Part of them capable of bearing Arms.

I have diſpatched the Bonaviſta Sloop to Halifax, agreeable to your Order, to deſire a Number of Tranſports may be ſent here to carry the Inhabitants to France, there being here only two Brigs, one Snow, and a few ſmall Schooners; and the Scarcity of Proviſions in the Iſlands will not admit of victualling properly even the few Inhabitants they can contain, neither are there any Water Caſks here fit to hold Water in: However, I propoſe to ſend away the Governor, his Council, Troops, and principal Inhabitants, in the Veſſels that are here, as ſoon as poſſible; but to accompliſh that will require more Time than was expected.

I ſhall deſtroy all the Fiſhing-Stages, Store-Houſes and Shallops, and the Houſes in the Town, as the Inhabitants embark from them.

I ſhall ſend Captain Chamberlayne, of His Majeſty's Sloop Martin, to Miquelon To-night, if if the Wind will permit, to ſend round the Civil and Military Officers to be embarked with the Governor for France, when a Veſſel can be got ready.

Copy of a Letter from the Baron de L'Eſperance to Commodore Evans, dated at St. Peter's, Sept. 14, 1778.

IT is with the greateſt Surprize I have received from you a Summons to deliver up this Government into the Poſſeſſion or His Britannick Majeſty, not having received Advice of a Declaration of War between the two Nations, from my Court. The formidable Force you have brought with you, knowing I had it not in my Power to oppoſe it, obliges me to condeſcend to your Summons, on Condition, that myſelf and the ſmall Garriſon ſhall quit with all the Honours of War, as the Officer who brought your Orders has promiſed.

I flatter myſelf I may expect from your Generoſity every Thing that is in your Power to grant to the unfortunate Inhabitants under my Care.

In Conſequence of which, Sir, I demand, Firſt, That all the Attention in your Power may be paid to the Officers in the Civil and Mili ary Departments in my Government: Secondly, That the Inhabitants ſhall take away their Effects from their Houſes, and alſo their Fiſh; and that they ſhall be ſent to France in a ſufficient Number of Tranſports, that there may be no Riſk of their periſhing before their Arrival. Thirdly, That we ſhall enjoy the Exerciſe o our Religion during out Stay in the Colony. Fourthly, That the ſmall Number of Veſſels in theſe Iſlands ſhall remain the Property of their reſpective Proprietors. Laſtly, Sir, I expect you will take Care to place proper Guards to prevent any Inſults to my People. In Proof of my Condeſcenſion to your Demand, I ſend you Three Hoſtages, viz. Monſ. D'Angeac de la Loge, Second Captain of the Troops, Bertin, Officer of the Government, and Des Roches, a principal Inhabitant.

Nothing but the Appearance of ſuch a Squadron could have obliged me to conſent to your Summons, which I do in order to ſpare the Blood of my Coloniſts, not fearing for myſelf, had I only the Feelings as an Officer to conſult.

P. S. I dare hope that you will grant every Thing I aſk, and ſend an Anſwer.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Evans, to the Baron de L'Eſperance, dated St. John's Road the 15th Sept. 1778.

IN anſwer to your Letter of Yeſterday, by the Officer whom I ſent to you. to ſummon you to ſurrender the Iſlands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, to His Britannic Majeſty, which you have thought proper to do, under particular Articles; agreeable to your Requeſt, the Troops ſhall be permitted to march out of the Town with all the Honors of War; the Officers, Civil and Military, and the other Inhabitants of the Town, may remain in their reſpective Houſes, 'till an Opportunity offers of ſending them to France.

There will be no Interruption in the Exerciſe of their Religion, and Care ſhall be taken that no Inſults be given them.

In Conſideration of my granting you theſe Terms, you ſhall upon your Honor give a true and faithful Account of the Number of Inhabitants, diſtinguiſhing their Sexes, with an Account of all Ordnance, Arms, Ammunition, and all other Warlike Stores; together with the Number of Veſſels, Fiſhing-Boats, Fiſh, Oil, and other Merchandize, that are in the ſaid Iſlands; all which ſhall be delivered up to ſuch Officers as I may think proper to appoint to receive them, and to be diſpoſed of in ſuch Manner as I ſhall think proper. And the Inhabitants may be aſſured of all the Indulgence it may be in my Power to grant them, during their Stay on theſe Iſlands. I ſhall land a Detachment of Troops on the Iſland, when the Officer returns, who is charged with this Letter, and the Hoſtages will be delivered up as ſoon as Engliſh Colours will be hoiſted at St. Peter's.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Montagu, to Mr. Stephens, dated St. John's, Oct. 16, 1778.

BY his Majeſty's Ship Guadaloupe, that ſailed from hence the 7th Inſtant, I did myſelf the honour to write you by Way of Liſbon, and encloſed you a Copy of Commodore Evans's Letter to me from St. Pierre's, of the 17th of September, with Copies of what had paſſed between him and the Governor of that Iſland, to that Time. Duplicates of which I tranſmitted the 8th Inſtant, by a Merchant Veſſel bound to Ireland.

On the 11th Inſtant, the Commodore arrived here in His Majeſty's Ship Romney, (not thinking it prudent to remain any longer with ſo large a Ship, in that Road, ſo late in the Seaſon) and brought with him His Majeſty's Ship, Pallas, a French Letter of Marque of 400 Tons, and a Snow, both from Bourdeaux, loaded with Proviſions for St. Pierre and Miquelon. They both went into St. Pierre's Road, after the Place had ſurrendered.

I am now to inform you, that the Commodore has (in the Veſſels he found at St. Pierre's) embarked the Governor and his Suite, with the Troops and all the principal Inhabitants, Women and Children, amounting in the Whole to 932, and ſent them to France, before he left the Place; and as Tranſports were daily expected from Halifax, to take the Remainder of the Inhabitants (whom he ſuppoſes to to be about 1000) he has left the Surprize and Martin to ſee them embarked, with Orders to deſtroy the Houſes, Stores, &c. that were remaining.

Incloſed I tranſmit you an Account of the Fiſh and Oil found at St. Pierre's and Miquelon, together with the Number of Boats, and Small Arms, agreeable to the Return made to me by Commodore Evans.
